RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Newspaper proprietors generally, and especially of this city, under the usages and regulations heretofore prevaling are called upon to perform more labor without remunera-tion, than any other class of community. The gratuitous publication of charity and religious advertisement, and com-munications, tributes of respect, obitcaries, &c. &c., which can only be inserted at a heavy cost to the proprietor, imcan only be inserted at a heavy cost to the proprietor, im-poses upon them a burden so onorous, that they feel called upon, in self-defence, to check the abuse, by making such publications a charge, to some extent at least, upon the par-ties more minediately interested. In this they are but following the example of the press in other cities, impelled by a sense of its intrinsic propriety, and imperative duty to themselves. The subscribers have, therefore, united togeth-er in a mutual agreement, upon the to lowing specified terms
